POSITION OVERVIEW:
Pyramid Hill Sculpture Park and Museum is hiring an Education and Programs Manager to create and lead programming for all ages. This position collaborates with partner organizations and artists to offer interdisciplinary arts experiences to Park patrons, schools, and the broader community. This position would be responsible for creating a diverse range of programs and events aimed at being inclusive of all ages and backgrounds.

The Park provides meaningful, cross-disciplinary, educational experiences that leverage the intersection of arts and nature. The ideal candidate will help craft and implement the Park’s education strategy for programming, exhibition and artist integration, as well as visitor engagement and learning. This includes new initiatives like launching a field trip and badge programs. Additionally, this position would be heavily involved with the leading and programming our Signature Events including Founder’s Day (March), Art & Earth Day (April), and Art Fair (September) and our general series events.

An ideal candidate will:
• Demonstrate a deep understanding of how to engage diverse, intergenerational audiences with an emphasis on families and youth.
• Builds community within the local arts and education sector and seeks out opportunities for collaboration.
• Develop curriculum-informed engagement opportunities for informal and formal educational audiences, including k-12 initiatives, university engagement, and full family education.
• Manages projects, keeping and meeting deadlines, with strong skills at prioritizing and multitasking.
• Works with Marketing Manager to integrate data collection and assessment into programs to ensure programmatic improvement and growth.
• Design, develop, and implement new innovative educational experiences for visitors to facilitate engagement with the Park’s collections, outdoor spaces, and special and permanent exhibitions.
• Prepares and presents inclusive programs focused on art making, local natural/cultural history, environmental topics and sustainability to diverse groups and individuals.
• Plan programmed events and coordinate/train with volunteers, partner organizations, or contractors when applicable.
• Collaborates with the Development Director on grant and sponsorship opportunities and impact reporting.
• Lead and facilitate student tours and workshops as necessary.
• Maintain online and hard copy registrations for classes and camp.
• Oversee with program prep and clean up for education programming.
• Valuediversity, equity, access, and inclusion.

Required Qualifications:
• Bachelor’s degree with an appropriate combination of education, training, course work and experience
• Minimum of two years’ experience working in education, at an art institution, or in program management (can be part of education or certification requirements.)
• Strong project management and collaboration skills.
• Experience creating age-appropriate lesson plans and art projects, as well as the ability to create a fun and respectful atmosphere for all participants.
• Demonstrates excellent communication, listening, and presentation skills.
• Ability to communicate effectively with people from a variety of backgrounds and skill levels.
• Knowledge of national and regional education trends and standards
• Excellent writing and editing abilities
• Proficiency in Microsoft Office (Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint, Word), or Google Suite (Docs, Slides, Sheets), and willingness to learn new software as needed.
• Interest in art and the natural environment
